On July 28, Congressman Steny Hoyer conducted a telephone town hall discussion with more than 3,000 Fifth District residents that focused on the economy, rising gas prices and the problems in the housing market.

Click here to listen to the town hall discussion.